

Answer these questions in complete sentences on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What do unbelievers typically believe about Jesus, the historical person?
2. Is it possible that Jesus was what they say?
3. What are the only two options?
4. What three qualities does Jesus have in abundance that lunatics most conspicuously lack?
5. Define the word “sage” as a noun.
6. Summarize the argument for Jesus’s divinity.
7. What is the special strength of this argument?
8. The modern theologian has two escapes when trying to run from the Truth.
  - a. What is the first and how do you answer it?
  - b. What is the second and what is the problem with it?